

Ken Bell

Ken Bell is an innovative choreographer and educator specializing in Jazz, Musical Theatre, Lyrical, and Technique. With over 10 years experience, Ken continues to share his knowledge and experience with dancers across the nation. His students have received numerous convention and college scholarships and have pursued professional dance careers including Broadway, concert dance, and national sports team dance squads. His passionate and personalized approach to teaching, also known as “kenergy,” inspires young artists to push themselves and their technique in all genres of dance. For more on Ken’s choreography, follow him on Instagram @kenbellchoreography